LAWS

FOR THE FUTURE REGULATION OF THE AMICABLE SOCIETY.

I.

THE Affairs of the Society ſhall be managed by a Preſident and a Committee, conſiſting of ſix, to be elected at an annual General Meeting. The Preſident ſhall at the next annual Meeting, propoſe one of the former Committee to ſucceed him in his Office, who ſhall be deemed duly elected unleſs another Candidate is propoſed, in which Caſe the Election ſhall be determined by Ballot.

II.

The annual Subſcription ſhall be twelve Shillings, and the Price for Admiſſion one Pound eleven Shillings and Six-pence, for the preſent Year. To be regulated at every annual Meeting for the enſuing Year.

III.

Each Perſon on becoming a Subſcriber ſhall have a Catalogue of the Books, and a Medal, for which muſt be paid one Shilling; which Medal muſt be ſhewn to the Librarian, if required, when a Book is ſent for.

IV. Any

IV.

Any Subſcriber may transfer his or her Right or Share in the Library, either by Sale, Gift, or Will, provided the Perſon, to whom it is transferred, will ſubſcribe to theſe Laws.

V.

The Committee, (any three of whom, including the Preſident or a Deputy, ſhall be deemed ſufficient) ſhall meet to tranſact Buſineſs at the Library Room, the firſt Monday in every Month, or ſuch other Days as they ſhall appoint: At their firſt Meeting they ſhall elect a Treaſurer to the Society, and a Secretary to record the Tranſactions of the Committee, and of the next annual Meeting. If the Preſident be abſent, the Committee ſhall have Power to chuſe one for the Day: The Preſident for every Neglect of Attendance, ſhall be fined one Shilling, and every other Member of the Committee Sixpence.

VI.

The Preſident may order an extraordinary Meeting of the Commitee, when he thinks it neceſſary; and they ſhall have Power to call a general Meeting of the Subſcribers whenever they apprehend the Intereſt of the Society requires it.

VII.

The Preſident with one of the Committee, or any two appointed by him, ſhall from time to time viſit the Library, to examine the Librarian's Accounts and the State of the Books; and ſhall report their Obſervations at the next Meeting of the Committee.

VIII.

Any Subſcriber may propoſe Books for Admiſſion by writing the Title, the Price, the Number of Volumes, and a reference reference to their Character if poſſible, in a Book kept for that purpoſe in the Library Room, which the Librarian ſhall lay before the Committee at every Monthly Meeting: Every Recommendation of a Book muſt be ſigned by the Propoſer, and the Committee may order or reject them at their Diſcretion.

IX.

The Committee ſhall have Power to purchaſe the Books where and in what manner they think moſt eligible; and to ſuppreſs till the next general Meeting, any they may judge improper for Circulation.

X.

If a Book be loſt the Subſcriber to whom it was delivered ſhall pay the full Value of the ſame when new; and if the Book loſt, be part of a Set, the whole ſhall be replaced, or the Value paid in three Months, from the Time it ought to have been returned to the Library.

XI.

The Preſident and Committee ſhall determine the Time allowed for the Peruſal of every Book and Pamphlet, and cauſe it to be inſerted in the inſide of the Cover; and if a Subſcriber keeps any of them longer than the limited Time, the Fine ſhall be Two-pence per Day, when the ſame is returned to the Library. No Perſon being allowed to take out more Books till ſuch Fine is paid.

XII.

The Librarian ſhall give Notice to the Subſcribers when a Book, Books, or Pamphlet have been kept one Day longer than the Time appointed; on ſuch Notice the Book, Books, or Pamphlet ſhall be returned, if wanted, if not, the Term in them muſt be renewed, and the Fine incurred paid to the Librarian. Any Subſcriber refuſing to comply with theſe Terms, ſhall be ſubject to fine as in the foregoing Law.

XIII.

If a Subſcriber lends a Book belonging to the Society to any Perſon, or receives one from any other Perſon than the Librarian, he or ſhe ſhall be fined one Shilling: And no Perſon ſhall be allowed to have more than two Books at a time, except a Review or a Pamphlet.

XIV.

The Librarian ſhall give Notice to all the Members of the Committee, the Morning of the Day of their monthly Meeting, and to all the Subſcribers two Days before their annual or general Meeting. He ſhall deliver Books to the Subſcribers on every Day in the Week, except Sunday, from nine to twelve in the Morning, and from two to five in the Afternoon. If a Subſcriber applies for a Book which is out, the Librarian ſhall minute the Circumſtance, if required, and when the Book is returned, ſhall not deliver it to any, but the Perſon who firſt applied, until it has remained in the Library one Day.

XV.

All the Caſh, except what is already appropriated to the Library, whether it ariſes from admiſſion Money, Subſcriptions, or Fines; or from Benefactions of Perſons wiſhing to encourage this Inſtitution, ſhall be paid into the Hands of the Treaſurer, who ſhall be anſwerable for it to the Society, at the next annual Meeting, when all the accompts muſt be ſettled.

XVI.

All new Books ſhall be half-bound, uncut, lettered and numbered on the Back, except Pamphlets, which ſhall be covered with ſtrong Paper, and have the Titles wrote on the Cover.

XVII.

The Reviews ſhall remain in the Library Room till after the next Meeting of the Committee.

XVIIII.

The Librarian ſhall be reſponſible for all the Books delivered to his or her Care.

XIX.

Any Subſcriber ſhall have Liberty to peruſe the Books in the Library Room, within the Hours limited for delivery.

XX.

Thoſe Ladies who are already Subſcribers to the Society, may have the Privilege of continuing ſo, without becoming Proprietors.

XXI.

Thoſe Gentlemen who are now Non-Reſidents, on ſubſcribing to theſe Laws, ſhall be entitled to the Privileges of a Member of this Society.

XXII.

No Laws ſhall be made or repealed, except by a Majority of two-thirds of the Subſcribers at one annual Meeting.

XXIII.

The annual Meeting of the Society ſhall be the firſt Wedneſday in July.

XXIV.

If any Difficulty ariſe that is not expreſsly provided for by theſe Laws, it ſhall be determined by the Committee; and their Tranſactions and Determinations ſhall be in force till the next annual Meeting.

XXV.

No Perſon ſhall be conſidered as a Proprietor in the Library, or have any Right, Property, or Intereſt whatever therein, who does not ſubſcribe and ſubmit to theſe Laws, and to ſuch other Laws and Regulations as may hereafter be duly made by the Society.

N. B. Any Perſon deſirous of becoming a Member of this Society, muſt ſend a Note to that purpoſe to the Library Room, directed for the Preſident.
